

BUSINESS OF HOME

Holly Hunt's flagship showroom in Los Angeles, Schumacher's first space in Paris and more

NEW YORK

Interior design studio Robert McKinley opened a new bungalow available for rental in Montauk called Seaview, where everything—including the house—is for sale. The 2,000-square-foot property sleeps eight people and is a continuation of the firm's shoppable design destinations, featuring a new coffee table from Monea and the recently launched furniture and lighting collection from Studio Robert McKinley. Brass hardware by Emtex, furniture by EQ3 and art from Ayan Farah, Claes Oldenburg, Jack Greer and more are also on display.

57 Seaview Avenue, Montauk